- The home is located at 1305 Ross Avenue in Greensboro
- REALTORS® will work on the house Sept. 28, Sept. 29, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.
- All press is invited to stop by the home while repairs are being done to speak with REALTOR® volunteers, Community Housing Solutions staff, or the homeowner.

GREENSBORO, N.C. – Members of the Greensboro Regional REALTORS® Association are rolling up their sleeves to help a deserving homeowner in Greensboro.

Local REALTORS® will replace a woman's front yard porch and help her with yard work starting Monday, Sept. 28 as part of GRRRA's 12th annual REALTORS® 'R' Rebuilding project with Community Housing Solutions.

For 2020, REALTORS® R Rebuilding will work exclusively outside and safety measures such as mask wearing and social distancing will be in place.

The house we will work on is a 1305 Ross Avenue in Greensboro. We will be there Monday, Sept. 28; Tuesday, Sept. 29; Wednesday, Sept. 30 and Thursday, Oct. 1. Work hours will be 8:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.

The home is owned by an 82-year-old woman with mobility issues. We will replace her front yard ramp with a permanent ramp and spruce up her yard.

The press is invited to stop by the home while repairs are being made to speak with any of the REALTOR® volunteers, Community Housing Solutions staff or the homeowner.

If you would like to schedule a time to speak with the homeowner, or if you would like more information about the project, please call Joe Borlik at (336) 854-5868 (office) or (336) 926-4887 (cell).
