The Greensboro Regional REALTORS® Association (GRRRA) will host a City Council Candidate Forum, focused on Greensboro's housing needs, this coming Monday, October 13 from 3–6 p.m.

This panel will feature candidates who advanced past Tuesday's primary election round, including:

- Mayoral Candidates: Marikay Abuzuaiter and Robbie Perkins
- At-Large Candidates: Richard Beard, Jamilla Pinder, and Denise Roth
- District Candidates: Sharon Hightower (District 1), Monica Walker (District 2), Zack Matheny and April Parker (District 3), Adam Marshall and Nicky Smith (District 4), Tammi Thurm and Jeanette Davidson-Mayer (District 5)

As Greensboro continues to grow, housing availability and affordability remain key issues shaping the city's future. This forum offers an opportunity for candidates to share their perspectives on Greensboro's housing needs – and for attendees to hear directly from those seeking to lead the city.

Greensboro voters will then elect their next mayor, three At-Large representatives and five district reps on General Election Day, which will be Tuesday, November 4.

Media are encouraged to attend for interviews, candidate insights and community perspectives on one of Greensboro's most pressing issues.
